PRESIDENT'S REPORT

October 2023

To those members feeling unwell, I wish you a speedy recovery and to those who have celebrated or are celebrating a birthday or anniversary I hope your special day was/will be one to remember. To all who have had sickness in the family we wish them a speedy recovery.

With the Annual Meeting coming up on Monday 30th October 2023 and all the positions being available I extend to the Executive, Committee, Rally Co-Ordinator, Rally Committee, Newsletter Editor, Webmaster and Christmas Committee a "Big Thank You" for your commitment and endeavors to provide a pleasant atmosphere over the past twelve months. Many thanks to the partners of all the above for your support, as you too are instrumental in our success.

Thanks also to those who ran the Rallies during the year and it is hoped that more members will make themselves available to run Rallies during 2024.

As all positions will become vacant, please take this opportunity to have your say in the running of The Ballarat Caravan Club Inc. Please nominate your choice for any of the positions.

Kevin Doherty

Rally Co-Ordinator's Report 2023

Great see a few more vans at the Koroit rally. Good weather makes a difference.

Thank you Ian and Jacki for organizing this rally and everyone else who put in to make it enjoyable.

We had a guest Eric Langdon who came along to see what goes on he must have enjoyed himself as he has now joined the club. Welcome Eric.

The next rally is at Lake Boga 16/17/18/19th Oct. Mon/Tues /Wed/Thurs. We have 12 vans at the moment going .

Inglewood Rally in August

The August Rally held at Inglewood was a very relaxing few days. It was lovely to catch up with everyone after being away in Queensland.

Brian and Robyn fed us all with lovely coleslaw, sausages and bread rolls for lunch on Friday.

The camp kitchen and room with its wood heater is a good venue in the winter. We contributed $2 per van for a bag of wood which lasted all weekend.

Lunch at the Inglewood hotel was once again a great meal with lots of fresh salads and veggies to choose from. After lunch we gathered in the rec. room again where I read a couple of stories supplied by Elly. Kevin Doherty won the raffle.

Stella

Just a reminder to members, Noreen has organised another luncheon for us at Midlands Golf Club, Heinz Lane, Invermay Park at 12 noon. If you intend to go please let Noreen know in plenty of time so that she can make the booking. Her number is 5336 1352

Reminder that Subs are now well overdue but can be paid at the AGM meeting.

Full Subs Towing $35,00
Unable to Tow $17.50.

Just in case you have misplaced the nomination form that I included in the last newsletter you will find another Nomination Form included again in this newsletter. We hope you will find it in your heart to fill it out for yourself or nominate another member.

Koroit Rally in September

I arrived Thursday afternoon, several vans were already there and setup. We were still expecting a couple of vans including new member Eric. Everyone arrived safely. Aside from strong winds at times the weather was pleasant, lovely sunshine, just what we need for a rally. New members, Ian and Jacki Hemming had offered to run the rally. They organised a BBQ lunch for Friday. Members brought either a salad or Sweets. Needless to say, we didn't go hungry with all the delicious food. We were close enough to town to be able to walk. I am sure we all spent money at the Lions club Op Shop. On Saturday we went for lunch at the Irish pub where a special 7 course Irish meal was on offer.

"6 glasses of Guinness and a potato". No one ordered that meal but there were no complaints about the meals and several doggy bags were taken home for dinner. Morning teas and happy hours were enjoyed by everyone. We welcomed Eric to our group, he must have enjoyed himself because he has promised to come back and bring another prospective member as well. It is lovely seeing new faces. As usual, we had a great time.

Marion.
