PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

Hi Everyone,

My last report for 2019. It has been a very busy year, a few ups and downs but we got through still with a smile on our dials.

Many thanks to our out going Secretary, Jan for her work over the last three years, she has been a very diligent Secretary. Welcome to our incoming Secretary Robyn Church and new Rally member Stephen Low. All other positions are ongoing

If you haven't let Noreen or Pam know that you wish to go to the Christmas Dinner 🍷 on Friday, 6th. Dec. you need to get your name down quickly. The ladies have put a lot of effort into organising the night and we need to show our appreciation by attending. 🍷🍷🍷🍷

Thankyou everyone for your participation and company throughout the year, I wish you all a happy and safe Christmas and may 2020 be filled with good health and happiness. 🍷🍷🍷

A notice in a church vestry about the use of mobiles:

If you wish to TALK to God, please enter and find a quiet place to do so. However if you wish to SEE God, just send him a text message whilst you are driving! Please all stay safe over the Christmas break.

Stella.

Rally Report

G'day,

Our rally to Bridgewater was a good rally in which all who attended had an enjoyable time, the park is a great park with all new amenities and lovely spacious sites. There were canoe and kayak races on the river Saturday that entertained a few members. As Shown in the Annual report the rallies for Jan to April 2020 have been selected they are

(January Maryborough)

(February Mortlake)

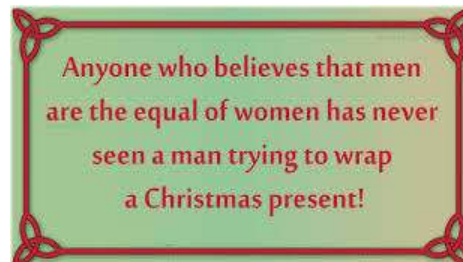

(March Rocklands)

(April Heathcote)

This Rally will be a combined rally with Bendigo. Leaving from this rally will be an extended rally moving on to Cobram Willow C/P Cobram, Lockhart C/P Lockhart N.S.W, Beechworth C/P Beechworth, then finishing at Broken Creek Farm Stay, please read rally book for information.

The 2020 rally organizers are: John Howard,

Kevin Irwin, Stephen Low, and Barry Burnett. In finishing I would like to thank all who helped in all rallies and wish you all a Happy, Safe and Merry Christmas.

Barry

BRIDGEWATER RALLY.

Eight vans attended the Bridgewater rally, one van arrived on the Wednesday hoping to catch all the fish but this was not to happen, no fish caught although Janice and Julie tried hard. The weather was kind to us although not overly hot. On the Friday some went to Inglewood for a look around a lot of antique shops and a couple of bargains were picked up, Pauline found a cane basket to take home and fill with flowers I'm sure it will look nice  and Eileen picked up a white cast iron flower pot holder  which was absolutely stunning  We were so impressed with their purchases, well Bill and I anyway. Then came Graham, 80 plus years old and bought a baby seat for the car what is going on???

Friday night we all had dinner together in the camp kitchen with fresh fruit salad and ice-cream topped off with Noreen's flummery and jelly. Stella then had two groups around the table to play "Left, Right and Over"

Prizes were won by Noreen and Graham McClean.

Saturday we all went to the hotel for lunch, after lunch some went for a drive then back to the park for a long happy hour. The raffle was won by Ann McClean and second prize by Noreen Daniell. The Daniell and McClean families cleaned up on the prizes!! A great rally was enjoyed by all.

Barry.

Who is Santa's Favourite Singer?
