Rocklands Rally Report

On the 21st.October we had a pleasant drive to Rocklands for the rally. As this was the first one for quite a while, we were looking forward to it. Upon arrival Colin was there to guide us in. After everybody arrived there were eight vans there. The weather was good the first day but then it rained – we sat under the tarpaulin beside the fire in the drum, where we had a good time chatting and catching up with everybody. Gloria who runs the park could not do enough to ensure that we had everything we needed and were comfortable” thank you Gloria for your hospitality”.

As Balmoral is the nearest village several of us went in to have a look around and there was a beaut Opp shop and the food from the takeaway Café was good and tasty.

Gary, Barry, and Steve went fishing and returned with a few good size yellow belly which were enjoyed as part of our Barbeque.

Garry won the trophy for the best fish caught. Later on, we played bingo which every body enjoyed. Barry was the caller and after a few choice words became quite proficient at it. We had a visitor, Hedi from Horsham (a friend of Colins’) who has written a book of her life and the story of being torn between two countries. Hedi brought with her two Apple Strudels to add to our wonderful barbeque.

Ellie won the Raffle and Andy won the second prize. ????????

Sunday morning we packed up and headed home.

The camaraderie at the rallies is greatly appreciated by those who attend, especially in these Covid times. Thank you to the Rally Committee for their work in organizing these Rallies and thank you to Barry and Stella for running the Rally.

Naomi Howard.
